

CRIME REPORT

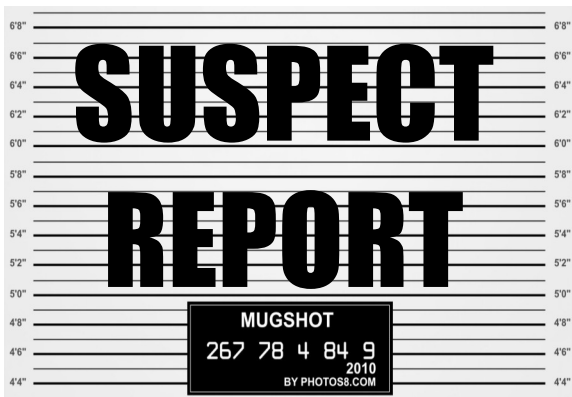

CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

At 8:45 am on a call came in to the Police Station about the theft of a piece of art. Officers were dispatched to the Public Library and arrived at 9:02 am.

Officers interviewed the children's librarian who claimed that a valuable piece of art was missing from her office. The librarian arrived at her office at 8:27 am and immediately noticed that a valuable manga drawing that was signed by the artist was missing from its frame. The librarian confirmed that she left the library the previous night at 5:40 pm.

According to library staff members who worked the night of the robbery, there was only 19 minutes when both staff members were away from the desk at the same time.

Investigators conclude that the thief must have stolen the manga drawing sometime between 8:30 pm and 8:49 pm.

All library staff members have been ruled out as suspects. However, four additional people were identified as being at the library between 8:30 and 9:00 pm:

Vincent van Gogh
Pablo Picasso

R. Rembrandt
Henri Matisse

No one can account for their whereabouts during the time the theft took place.
